Level of playing ability on instrument

Please could you confirm which instrument you are going to be playing on. To make it easier for tutors, please let us know roughly the level of playing you are at using a number between 1 and 4.

1. Complete Beginner: You have no experience of this instrument at all.
2. Improving Beginner: You've been playing for a short time but can feel your way around the instrument and can play a few tunes or chords.
3. Intermediate: You've been playing for a couple of years and know a dozen or so tunes or can play some by ear, although not necessarily up to speed. Or you can accompany songs or tunes from chord charts given to you.
4. Intermediate/Advanced: You've been playing for longer, can play tunes more or less up to speed or accompany songs and tunes by ear. Can sight read tab or notation quite well and learn by ear.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

RESIDENTIAL

There are 35 residential spaces available at the Youth Camp and it is a first come first serve basis. The price for being a residential participant is £195. The accommodation is provided at Hillhead Halls of Residence, Aberdeen, and single rooms are available with communal kitchen/social spaces and facilities.

There will be youth workers and chaperones staying with the residential participants and a different fun activity is planned for each night including a board game night and a session! Breakfast, lunch and a main meal are all provided in the price for residential participants.

Please book a residential space on the SC&T website under the Youth Camp section. www.scottishculture.org.

FOOD

Lunch is not provided for non residential participants so please could non residential participants bring a packed lunch each day. Alternatively, there is a cafe in the MacRobert Building or the Hub that non residential participants can buy lunch from.

On Friday, all participants shall be catered for before the evening concert with a selection of delicious pizzas! Please could you provide us with any dietary requirements or allergies.
