Level Guide

- 0 – complete beginners
- 1 – Some proficiency, not complete beginners.
- 2 – For those who have some skills already, tuition is at a faster pace than level 1.
- 3 – Participants expected to be competent at their instrument & able to play up to speed.
- All – this indicates all levels are welcome in this class.
- By Audition – Due to the need to form a balanced group participants will be called to an audition before joining the class.

Class Guide

For more information on classes and tutors visit our website: www.scottishculture.org
 If you are unsure of your level please just ask – email on office@scottishculture.org, come along to our Tutor Concert or ask at the desk during the first week.

You do not need to be an expert to join our classes! Classes run from 7pm-9pm (with a break around 8pm) apart from SC&T Youth Classes which are from 1830-1945 and 1945-2100. Classes are mainly taught by ear but written music is often provided as an aid as required.
 *Ceilidh Dance 2/3 Venue is St. George's Tillydrone Church, Hayton Rd.
